

The Rustan Preserves

The Rustan Preserves, totaling 775 acres, is a Southwest Grassland Preserve located in the Southwest Foothills southwest of the City of Tracy. On July 28, 2005, SJCOG Inc, approved the acquisition of this property to serve as the mitigation for the consumption of land in the Southwest or Central/Southwest Transition Zone. Protected species include San Joaquin Kit Fox, Burrowing Owl, and Red-Legged Frog.

Legend

-  Rustan
-  McDonald
-  Other Entities Conservation Easements
-  Roads, Streets, Highways
-  County Parcels
-  Habitat Map
-  Water Ways

- BCN: Blue Oak Conifer Savanna (<10% Canopy)
- BCN2: Blue Oak Conifer Savanna (10-33% Canopy)
- G: Grasslands
- W3: Creek (20-100 feet wide)
- W5: Freshwater Lake, Pond or Vernal Pool

SAN JOAQUIN COUNTY
MULTI-SPECIES HABITAT
CONSERVATION AND OPEN SPACE PLAN

SJCOG, Inc.
555 E. WEBER AVENUE
STOCKTON, CA 95202
(209) 235-0600
(209) 235-0438 fax
www.sjcog.org/habitat